(a) whether Government have examined the recommendations/observations of the expert Panel Report on restructuring of the Planning Commission;

(b) if so, what are its broad features; and

(c) what is Government's reaction thereto particularly on the restructuring of the Planning Commission by pruning its strength and that of its Secretariat and roping in the best talent available in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) An Interim Report of the Task Force set up regarding structure and manning of the Planning Commission has been received. The broad features of the recommendations made in the Interim Report are that the Planning Commission should perform a 'Think Tank' role and suggested restructuring of the Divisions with this end in view enabling greater interaction in the Commission, with Central Ministries and the State Govts. The system of engaging Non-Official Consultants for undertaking short-term expertise needs to be strengthened and various educational and research organsations to be involved to provide necessary inputs. The Commission should endeavour to get best quality personnel and there should be flexibility in giving higher grade posts within the total number, depending upon seniority, merit and performance.

(c) In pursuance of the recommendations, the number of posts in the Commission has already been reduced and efforts will be made to get the best talent as and when vocancies occur.
